

BE HERE AND BE HEARD!

A Public Workshop on Public Speaking. Facilitated by Eleni Kelakos president of SPEEK

“One of the best days of staff training I’ve ever experienced in a business career spanning over 40 years.”
—Randal Charlton, Executive Dir. Techtown, Detroit

Times are tough. Public speaking doesn't have to be.

If you'd rather leap into a tub of rats than speak in public, or if you want to take your public speaking to whole new levels of confidence and persuasive power, this workshop is for you! Stand out and be Heard in the New Year!

You'll learn— and reinforce— such communication and presentation techniques as:

- The importance of connecting before speaking
- Breathing and Relaxation techniques for optimum ease and authenticity
 - Right Listening and Right Speaking Techniques
 - Structuring your presentation for optimum Impact.
 - How to tame the Power Point Monster
- Why and how to use personal stories to make your presentations memorable

You'll also have the opportunity to give a critiqued presentation— once and possibly twice!
